Executive Summary

This report details the results of SQL injection vulnerability testing performed against <https://juice-shop.herokuapp.com/#> on 2025-09-08 at 00:15:42. The testing included common SQL injection payloads against the id parameter. The results indicate that the application appears to be properly sanitizing inputs, as none of the tested payloads resulted in successful exploitation. However, further in-depth testing is recommended to confirm these findings.
